FIRST QUÉBEC LESBIAN & GAY STUDIES CONFERENCE:

From the 12th to the 15th of November, 1992, Montréal will host the first Québec Lesbian and Gay Studies Conference. Organized jointly by the Université du Québec à Montréal and Concordia University, the event, which is open to the general public, will bring together over 180 speakers, including academics, community workers and activists from Montréal as well as from other North American and European cities.

Lesbians and Gays in Montréal: Histories, Cultures and Societies will cover a wide range of topics organized into a minimum of forty different panel sessions and workshops including: lesbian and gay history; lesbian and gay activism; issues surrounding AIDS; lesbian and gay literature, journalism, theatre and cinema; feminism and lesbianism; the rapport between homosexuality and ethnicity, law, religion, arts and media.

Participants in the conference will explore the diversity of lesbian and gay communities, past and present. In addition to the many benefits for future research, the conference should interest lesbians and gays, either on a personal level or as members of community organizations, who wish to discuss current issues. The participation of foreign speakers will provide useful points of comparison.

The conference will coincide with the opening of Image et Nation 5: Montréal's lesbian and gay film and video festival. Also held in conjunction with the conference will be a range of performances, literary sessions and social activities.

Papers will be given either in French or English, and where possible within budgetary constraints, translation will be provided. For visitors to Montréal, the conference has set up a billeting service, and lesbian and gay positive listings.
